Dear [REDACTED]

I can advise that we believe this was a false report hence no investigation was conducted into any Dr.

Kind regards

Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for advising the incident was not investigated and it was finalised on 14/11/24.

However please can you advise;

As you are not investigating the complaint, please can you provide the rationale why?

Please can you confirm whether the individual who is subject to the concerns is a doctor or not – and if so, please provide their name and any other identifying information (e.g. date of birth / GMC reference no).

Kind regards

Dear [REDACTED]

Re - 44240466479

I am writing further to our correspondence yesterday to advise that I have now received a response from the Officer in Case.

Based on the information and the occurrence number that you have provided, the Officer in Case has confirmed that there has not been an investigation into any doctor regarding this occurrence.

The Officer in Case has advised that this occurrence was finalised on 14/11/24.

If you have any further queries please do not hesitate to contact this department.

Kind regards

[REDACTED] Public Access Assistant

Dear [REDACTED]

Re - 44240466479

Thank you for your further email. On looking at our records this matter is not yet concluded so our department is unable to assist.

I have again passed this to the named Officer in Case and have asked them to respond.

If you have not done so already please apply online via this link to request contact from the Officer who is dealing with the case.

Dear

Re - 44240466479

I am writing in response to your email dated 2 December 2024.

Our records indicate that his matter has not yet been finalised so our department is unable to assist at this time.

Unfortunately we are unable to provide the email address for the Officer in Case so I have passed your email on to them.

In the meantime you may also wish to phone 101 and ask for the Officer who is dealing with the case to make contact with you.

Alternatively this can be done online by following this link Contact us to update us or ask for an update | Hampshire and Isle of Wight Constabulary

Dear [REDACTED]

When you advised on the 20/11 that the Officer in Case maybe able assist me further, to date I have not been contacted by the Officer in Case, therefore was wondering if you can provide me with his email address?.

We have an email where it appears to indicate that the police have closed the investigation or particular strands of the investigation with no further action.

Thanks
